A Model Factory Town.

South Carolina deserves much credit for the advanced measures already adopted in behalf of her mill operatives. We clip the following from the Atlanta Daily News, which says something of the work along this line that is being done by the mill owners in South Carolina.

The September Forum contains an interesting article on the Pelzer mills in Anderson County, S. C., where 3,000 operatives are employed. The author of the article, Mrs. Leonora Beck Ellis, of this city, calls Pelzer a model factory town and gives many interesting particulars. The community has 6,000 inhabitants but is a proprietary town controlled by the Pelzer company. It has a system of graded schools with an attendance of 800 children, who are taught free of cost. The company furnishes a library, with a library of 2,000 volumes, besides free lectures on history, travel and popular science and occasional concerts. There are women's and other athletic clubs and other things for the comfort and enjoyment of the people. They have neat cottages and are encouraged to plant flowers by an offer of prizes for the best display. The leading store, with a capital of $25,000 is largely owned by operatives and they have $50,000 on deposit in a savings bank.

Belton Items.

Sam, the 13-year-old son of J. L. Holtzclaw, died Sunday from a relapse of the measles, and was buried Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Tate, of the First Baptist Church, conducting the funeral services.

Mr. L. P. Smith, of Anderson, visited our Sunday School last Sunday, and in the excellent address he made we are sure he made lasting impressions on the little boys and girls. It was a source of much pleasure to have Mr. Smith with us, and we hope he will continue his visits.

Mr. W. H. Cobb has moved to the residence recently purchased from Mr. J. K. Brenzelle, near the cotton mill, and proposes to keep a first class boarding house. He and his estimable family will receive a hearty welcome to that part of town.

Our venerable friend, "Lum" Poole, has had quite a slice of blood poison in his left hand, from which he has suffered agonies for the past month, and from which one finger had to be amputated, but we are glad to report that he is now up again attending to his business.

Miss Marvin Quattlebaum, of Honea Path, visited this Sunday the guest of Mrs. R. A. Lewis and Mrs. A. R. Campbell, worshipping at the First Baptist Church. Miss Marvin always receives a hearty greeting here from young and old alike, having taught in the Academy here for two years.

Harris Bridge Letter.

Just a few dots for your readers, Mr. Editor. We are busy with the farming and haven't time to gather the news of our little burg.

Mrs. Janie Mitchell has been quite sick at her home, but we are glad to have her out again.

Little Janie Holder spent last week visiting her cousin, little Kathleen Wyatt, in Sheriff, S. C.

We are very proud of our R. F. D. route. It is such a benefit to us, we have a right to feel proud.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilson visited in Belton last week.

Look out, fair ladies, if some of you don't be cailed on to take a ride. Mr. Johnnie is sporting a new top buggy.

Mr. Clem Harris was at home Sunday on a short visit.

The cotton crop is small, but we hope to get more for it than we did last year.

Mr. George Wyatt has been visiting in our burg.

Christmas will soon be here for us to celebrate in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The Sunday School at Iola is in a flourishing condition, and we sincerely hope it will continue to do better.

Pound parties and sociables are beginning to fly around.

News is very scarce in our town.

CR. WEISAU.

Big Creek News.

There was a large crowd present at preaching last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Todd filled Mr. McCann's place. Mrs. Todd gave the Sunday School a talk on missionary work, which was enjoyed by all present.

There was a singing at Mr. I. M. Callahan's last Sunday afternoon, which was enjoyed by all present.

Misses Mamie Irby and Corrie Leo Newell, of Pelzer, were the guests of Miss Beulah Callahan last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Hindman, of Anderson, visited his parents here last Sunday.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Oct. 3rd, at 8 o'clock, Mr. John L. Hindman and Miss Hattie Stone, all of Pelzer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Herbert in the presence of about fifty friends of the bride and groom. A reception was tendered the couple at the groom's home the following day and was largely attended by their many friends. We extend to them our hearty congratulations and wish them a long, happy and useful life.

Mr. George Gambrell and charming sister, Miss Josie, of Brushy Creek, were in our midst last Saturday and Sunday.

The tent meeting at Williamston is being well attended by the Big Creek people.

Mr. Patrick Hindman and daughters went to Anderson one day last week shopping.

Miss Dessie Clardy, of Brushy Creek, was in our midst Sunday.

BROWN EYES.

A Tribute of Respect.

As the sun was peering through the eastern horizon on the morning of Oct. 3, 1901, at 7 o'clock, the noble soul of Mrs. Mary E. Boyd took its flight for mansions in the sky. She was in her seventy-sixth year. Our friend early in life gave her heart to the Saviour and joined the First Creek Baptist Church, and by her pure, Christian life gave more than ample proof that all was "well with her soul." Indeed, purity of thought, word and deed was the chief characteristic of her life. Her husband was killed fighting for his country in the War of Secession. She was left with two helpless little babes. She raised them as best she could, both of whom survive her and can testify how grandly and nobly she acted both father and mother to them. Her remains were laid to rest in Eureka cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by L. E. Campbell. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, yea, henceforth, says the Spirit, they shall rest from their labors," rest from sickness, from sorrow, from toiling, from disappointment, from sin and from Satan forever. She is resting.

A LOVING FRIEND.

Mr. Branyon Exonerated.

CARNESVILLE, GA., Oct. 7, 1901. EDITOR INTELLIGENCER: We, the committee appointed by Carnesville Baptist Church, at the instigation of the pastor, Rev. Carl E. Branyon, to look into the gossip of one of the members concerning the pastor, hereby submit our report to the church in conference:

After earnest and careful investigation we find absolutely no ground for or truth in the slanderous reports. We hereby re-affirm our fullest confidence in our pastor's sincerity and integrity as a gentleman and as a consecrated minister of the gospel. We furthermore commend the able, fearless spirit characterizing Mr. Branyon's preaching during the past three years as our pastor. Respectfully,

L. C. BROWN,

T. H. SANDERS,

I. A. MOORE,

C. G. McMURRY,

L. H. HAYES,

Committee.

Card of Thanks.

MR. EDITOR: Through your columns we wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends for the many acts of kindness shown us during the long illness of our son and brother. May the great Father whom he loved and trusted fully bless them all abundantly.

MR. AND MRS. E. T. GAMBRELL.

A Card.

MR. EDITOR: Please allow us space in your columns to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown us in the death of our darling little infant, Ruby. May God's richest blessings rest upon them.

MR. AND MRS. W. L. MADDOX.

Lowndesville News.

Messrs. H. B. Allen and J. S. Fennel returned Monday, 30th of September, to Augusta, Ga., to complete their course in the Medical College. They will both finish this year and will return with M. D. on their names.

Mr. J. J. Johnson left for Abbeville, where he will occupy for a short time the position of cashier in the Farmers' Bank, made vacant on account of the death of the former cashier.

Miss Vera Allen returned Wednesday from Gaffney, S. C., where she has been going to school, and will remain for some time on account of her health.

Mr. Willie Lindsay visited relatives in this town the past week.

Prof. Hoffmeyer and wife, of Elberton, Ga., visited relatives in this town the last week. While here many had the pleasure of enjoying his fine music.

Mr. W. G. Huckabee went to Anderson on a business trip last Thursday.

Mr. Gordon Speer left here for Central, S. C., where he will attend school. Enough cannot be said of Lowndesville, her attractions, etc., but suffice it to say that every visitor who happens here considers it a fine place, and the citizens of Lowndesville themselves think it is without parallel.

TONE.

Contractors and Bridge Builders are perhaps not aware of the fact that Sullivan Hardware Co. have a latest improved Cutting and Threading Machine, operated by electricity, and can cut and thread more pipe and bolts in a day and do the work better than could be done by hand in ten days. They are prepared to make estimates and fill orders promptly.

Health will give what wealth cannot buy—happiness. Feeling being a pleasant, comfortable service is the greatest known health promoter, and just as popular as our wheels, Columbia, Rambler, Cleveland, and the Hartford are the greatest favorites among discriminating wheel judges.

The great secret of a merchant's success in buying his goods right, Sullivan Hardware Co. have a regular Wholesale Department, and since opening same their trade has increased in volume very rapidly. In this age of sharp competition, merchants are looking more closely after prices, and they are finding that they can buy at wholesale from this house cheaper than by sending their orders away from home and paying freights.

The reason for this is that the Sullivan Hardware Co. are always wide awake and make contracts ahead with the manufacturer direct; besides they employ a real buyer in New York, with branch offices in other cities, who keep in touch with all large factories, which gives this house the advantage of knowing just where their spot cash orders will obtain the lowest prices.

It is much the same with the factory for merchants to buy in a home market when they can save money by doing so, and that is what Sullivan Hardware Co. propose to do for their trade. Anything in the Hardware line that is bought from them as low, often much lower, than the same class of goods are offered by other wholesale houses. If you have not investigated this fact they stand ready to prove it if you will give them your orders.
